N twithstanding all this council of council of the four councilmen made an address. Statement of the council of t the demurrer to the indictment and sent for District Attorney Campbell, who had been called to the grand jury room and stated to him his decision on ALSO the motion to quash. He added that the gentlemen charged with the offense of molfeasance in this case were public officials and gentlemen of high standing and it was incumbent upon all concerned to give them as speedy a trial as possible. Mayor Strauss arose and stated that he was ready for trial and thought $ 17.20 (0) he ought to have it. Judge Hereford stated that his clients were ready and demanded a trial. District Attorney Campbell said that the grand jury had informed him that they would require every moment of his time and that it 21.60 (0) would be impossible for him to take up 12.00 (0) the cases at once. He wanted the cases the cases at once. He wanted the cases 720 00 put off until Saturday afternoon but ac 00 the attorneys for the defense insisted 20 00 that the cases be taken up Saturday morning, and the Judge stated that they would be the first cases called on Satur-There seems to be a disposition to try $127,000 00 the cases by jury and the probability is that such a trial will be had, though some lawyers express the opinion that Yesterday afternoon, complaint was they are not properly jury cases.
